GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD

Understanding The Significance of Each Day of The Month. 31 Days Meditation and Prophetic Prayer Devotional To Receive Your Daily Bread

VOLUME TWO

Introduction

This book "Give us this day our daily bread" is a call to encourage you to present yourself before God daily and to pray in line with God's will based on His Word. "This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us" (1 John 5:14-15). Praying in accordance with God's will is essentially praying for what He would want for us and that is what guarantees answers to our prayers.

We can see God's revealed will throughout Scripture. And if we do not know what to pray for, Paul reminds us that as God's children we can rely on the Holy Spirit to intercede for us, as "the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will" (Romans 8:27). And since the Spirit of God knows the mind of God, the Spirit's prayer is always in line with keeping up with the will of the Father. You don't know what to pray? Ask the Holy Spirit. Speak in tongues!

God programmed His will into each day. In addition to finding the daily will of God in the scriptures. We also see God's will by the numbers He assigned to the days of the week e.g. 1st day, 5th day etc., by what He created on each of the days, His mandate for Man on the 6th day of creation and by the dates of the days e.g. 10th day of the month. Yeshua said heaven and earth will pass away but not one word of the Hebrew language will pass away. "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled" (Matthew 5:18). Hebrew is the language of God. The Hebrew letters have deeper meanings and significance than the English language. In the Hebrew letters linked with each day God coded daily blessings for us.

He created you with a mandate, in His image, after His likeness, Male or female. He blessed you, made you fruitful, gave you the ability to multiply, fill the earth and subdue it and gave you dominion over all living things created by Him. In this 9 step mandate is found your daily bread (Genesis 1:26- 28). Hence Yeshua commanded us to ask "Give Us This Gay Our daily bread".

The enemy manipulated man into deifying the elements of heaven – the stars and the planets. Men now worship the sun, moon and stars. Pagan festivals are linked with the elements of heaven and the names of their gods were given to the days of the week. (Sunday, Monday etc.), and used as points of contact so that they may relate the people's emotions, money spending, lifestyles and worship to the pagan gods that represented the names of the days and the months as the case may be. God prohibits paganism. Idolatry is rebellion and it attracts the wrath of God. God did not create the heavenly bodies to be worshipped. God prohibits their worship. He created the heavens to declare His glory and to worship Him alone. Psalm 19:1.

Each of the elements of the heavens have specific functions put in them by God. In the elements of heaven God coded our daily bread. As we pray daily and strategically, the enemy can no longer manipulate them to work contrary to the purpose of God for them and for us. “Give us this day our daily bread” is a petition that will cause the sun, the moon, the stars and all the planets to line up with the purposes of God and release daily the specific blessings for mankind. Look around you. Everything declares the awesome power of God. In them are daily blessings for you; the four seasons, the weather patterns, the day, the night, the month, the year etc. In them are daily blessings for us. In praying and meditating “Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread”, they yield their blessings from God to us; all things working together for our good.

The stars are a reflection of Yeshua, Jesus Christ our Messiah placed in the firmament by God. Each is a picture of His purpose, and they speak to us daily. Begin to pay attention to the ordinances of the heaven in Genesis 1:14-18. Coded herein and visible to the seeing eyes are our daily bread. The sun has daily energy for healing, rulership etc. The moon has monthly energies for our wellbeing. All the stars in performing their duties declare our victory over the enemy through Yeshua the Son of God. God has given you dominion over all of creation. Exercise it!

1. You were created to be a man or a woman. In this, are mandatory blessings allocated to you as either a male or a female. It is your birthright attached with daily blessings.

2. You look like God, and you can do what God does every day.

3. You are the image of God, so you think like God.

4. You are blessed to bless.

5. You are fruitful and not barren.

6. You are to multiply and not to diminish.

7. You have God’s ability to fill and replenish the earth, so there is neither scarcity nor lack.

8. You have the power to subdue the earth and win every battle. And above all

9. You have dominion over all of creation.

As you pray “Give us this day our daily bread”, you gain revelation and power to walk and live in victory all the days of your life, fulfilling the Divine mandate upon your life right from the day you were born according to Genesis 1:26-28.

In teaching His disciples to pray “Give us this day our daily bread”, Jesus Christ alluded to God's provision of manna, which was given every day in the desert (Exodus 16:4, Deuteronomy 8:3; John 6:31). Through this prayer, we recognize God as our provider and rely on Him to meet our daily needs on all sides. This does not mean that we expect God to literally rain down manna on us, but means that we understand He is the one who makes our work fruitful and also meets our physical needs in miraculous ways. The meaning of this request is that God sustains us physically and all round. Whatever is that need in your life, God desires to meet it. Just ask Him every day! Believe and it will manifest. Shortly after instructing His followers on how to pray, the request immediately preceding the appeal for daily bread is for God's kingdom to come (Matthew 6:25, 33).

Jesus said, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? . . . But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.” Our daily bread should be according to the will of God for the purpose of His kingdom.

Requesting daily bread is not only about physical provision, it also refers to asking for and receiving everything we need in life to succeed in the purpose of God for our lives. It requires fresh revelation to live in wisdom. We must set our priorities right. We are precious to God, and He cares about our needs. Every need met in our life is to be a fulfillment of the kingdom of God coming down to the earth realm, and His will to be done on earth as it is done in heaven. God is only obligated to answer prayers prayed according to His will. Our daily bread when conformed to the will of the Father receives speedy answer. We have an assurance of answered prayer when we pray according to the will of God. This book is a useful tool to guide us in praying according to the will of God, so we do not pray and ask amiss.

In Matthew 7:7-11, Jesus said, "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask Him" Good parents provide not only what their children need for physical life, but also for all other needs. God is the giver of good gifts (James 1:17). "He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?" (Romans 8:32). “All things” – this is our daily bread!

Through this prayer “Give us this day our daily bread”, Jesus Christ wants us to see that God is faithful and has supplied all our needs, whatever they are; wants and even luxuries. He knows what will sustain us and keep us safe. The clothes and shoes of the Israelites did not wear out in the 40 years of desert wandering, because God saw to it (Deuteronomy 8:4; Nehemiah 9:21). The same God wants to take care of our needs. They were in the wilderness, because God led them out of Egypt so God protected them. “Give us this day our daily bread” is an invitation for you to get out of bondage and enter into God’s promise for you. God has supplied all you need because that is what will bring His kingdom down and cause His will to be done. His will is to get you out of every bondage. Believe it, and it is yours. Breaking out of bondage is your daily bread.

The manna stayed fresh so long as the people gathered it according to His instructions, and water came out of a rock for them to drink. (Numbers 20:11). In the same way, God has promised to supply all our needs through His riches in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:19). We are not to worry and be anxious about food because God knows what we need before we ask. Christ is not telling us not to ask. He wants our asking to conform to God’s will. Every need of ours must have something in it for God. What does God stand to gain? What will the kingdom of God suffer if that need is not met for us? How will

God meeting that need in our lives demonstrate His will being done on earth as it is in heaven? Our going to God in prayers daily, positions us to seek Him, His will and His kingdom, putting Him first and trusting in His faithfulness that He has provided what we need (Matthew 6:33; Luke 12:22-31). We go to Him in prayers to receive that which He already made available. And all men shall experience blessings, then His will would be done on earth.

Manna is a type, a foreshadowing of Jesus Christ. After Yeshua miraculously fed the 5,000, they said to Him "give us this bread always" (John 6:34). Christ tried to get their attention off of physical bread and onto the true "bread of life". "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. . . . I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst" (John 6:32-34). Christ is the Bread of life. Understanding this as you pray daily "Give us this day our daily bread", you receive Him into your life daily.

"Give us this day our daily bread" is a desire to receive spiritual nourishment daily. Jesus Christ in your life is sufficient for you. Seek Him first. Get to Him first and all other things that you desire in life shall be added unto you day unto day. Just as God provided manna for the Israelites to save them from starvation, He has provided Jesus Christ as the bread of life for the salvation of our souls, He is our Sufficiency. The literal manna temporarily saved the Israelites from physical death. The spiritual manna saves us from eternal death. "Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die". Decree: I shall not die!

Give us this day our daily bread is our going to the altar for prayers to seek God daily. If we must succeed in life, a daily prayer life style should be maintained. Strategic prayer is a life of prayer; it is not a ritual. To gain Divine instructions and hear the voice of God clearly – PRAY. Don't wait to pray only when you feel like praying. Our strength is not in the mic but on our knees. Prayer is the flame that fuels our lives and ministry.

Pray daily! Pray without ceasing! Be consumed in prayer all the time. When prayer is on time, the Holy Spirit is never late. Consistent daily strategic prayer in the secret place is the fire you get from the furnace of prayer on your altar. Rekindle the altar of strategic prayer and every aspect of your life will be prayer-powered, spirit-driven and heaven-backed. The result is a life of constant testimony of miracles, signs, wonders, and you will become an amazement to our generation.

With a heart to pray daily,

Helen Naomi Godswill-Solomon

How to Use This Book

Individuals, husband and wife, family, prayer groups of two or more, ministry or church: Read Proverbs daily; one chapter a day.

- Be sure Jesus Christ is your Lord and Savior. You must be born again or ready now to be. This is about engaging God to receive your daily allocation.
- This is Volume 2. Please read and digest Volume 1, for better understanding and more effective engagement in prayer and meditation
- Believe the Divine love Abba has for you. Remember He loves you unconditionally so meet Him from that angle. Declare aloud; "I am grateful that I am loved. I am whole. I am ready to soar into my destiny and God's purpose for me this day with love. I am great. I am beautiful. I am successful. I come in the volume of the Book written of me to do the will of Abba. I am prosperous. I am in God and God is in me. I am one with God and the kingdom of God is within me. I am blessed. I align with love and abundance. I am healthy. I am wealthy. My soul is inspired. I am a magnet for miracles. I am grateful for this new day. I am grateful for my Divine connection". HalleluYah! Amen.
- Set time aside daily in the morning and in the evening. You are free to choose anytime convenient for you. For understanding of the hours of prayer, read my book Lord Teach Us To Pray for strategic prayer times based on your need. When you wake up in the morning, you are arising to a new day and new opportunities. Each morning is sacred, and a blank check that God places in your hands. What you say as you wake up has the power to shape your entire day. Life and death are in your mouth. When you speak, all of creation comes into alignment with the purpose of God. Command your morning and unlock your daily allocation for the day. Before your feet hit the ground, align your heart with heaven. Everything you want, speak it into the day, and the atmosphere will cooperate with you. You are not a victim of the day, you are a commander. The authority of heaven is in your tongue.
- Begin with deep praise and worship. Say; I register myself and my family on this altar of worship. Thank God for everything and everyone.
- Commanding your day is asking the day to obey the word of God spoken through your tongue. As you wake up, whatever you need for the day and whatever you want done that day, search out the Word of God that pertains to your situation and speak it out aloud to command the day into alignment by faith.
- Make room to speak in tongues as you receive the utterance, day and night. Speaking in tongues positions you in the perfect will of Yahweh
- 6pm is the beginning of the night watch. God's biblical day begins in the evening (Genesis 1:5, 8, 13, 19, 23 and 31). The angels sent by God to destroy the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah entered the city in the evening at the gate of the new day from 6pm and met Lot at the city square (Genesis 19:1). The spirits that want to bind cities to strange altars during the day or other special occasions start entering the city during the 6pm watch. The plan of the antichrist is to change our times, so we don't pray at strategic times (Daniel 7:25).

- ❖ Certain aspects of the covenant God made with Abraham concerning the promised nation in Genesis 15:17 was received as the sun went down. The Bible says that as the sun went down, a light went through the sacrifice Abraham offered to God. This refers to the gate of the evening. The emphasis of the actions of the sun in this verse is another pointer that God has synchronised His covenant with men and nations with the covenant of governance that the sun and the moon were given over the earth in Genesis 1:18. We must watch and pray to disarm the enemies at this gate of the 6pm watch and frustrate their tokens of sacrifice and covenants over our inheritance in our families, churches, cities and nations.
- ❖ Witches and strange spirits that target families start entering homes and communities from the 6pm gate; that is the time of the evening sacrifice. We must be prayerful at this time; personally and with our families.
- ❖ Again use the appropriate word of God to address all such issues.
- ❖ Have a prayer journal to record your daily personal encounters, dreams and visions.
- ❖ Begin by covering yourself, your home and environment with the blood of Jesus Christ. Invite the Holy Spirit to fill you afresh. Ask the Holy Spirit to get you drunk with His presence and power today.
- ❖ Meditate on the scriptures of the day and night.
- ❖ Speak out. Be thorough. Do not be distracted once you start praying. Focus on the Lord and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit.
- ❖ Express gratitude and give God quality praise, thanksgiving and worship (see "Daily Prayers of Praise and Worship" in Volume 1. Sing and dance! Relax and have fun engaging your Father in prayers.
- ❖ Daily, write down every thought you have been thinking and habits standing on your way and stopping you from being the person you desire to become. Confess and repent of every known sin committed. (Use "Prayers of Repentance and Cleansing" in Volume 1). Then write down what you want to be. Declare it to yourself. Practice emotionally becoming the new person you want to be and watch the transformation. "As a man thinks so is he" (Proverbs 23:7).
- ❖ Depending on what day of the week it is, break the dedication of the day to the associated idols.
    - Renounce all such dedications
    - Evict all the satanic priests and gatekeepers at the gate of each day
    - Destroy all their altars

- Use the blood of Jesus Christ to reconcile the day back to God and rededicate the day to the Lord

❖ Rededicate your house, prayer altar and environment. (See "Prayers for House Cleansing and Dedication of Your Altar" in Volume 1).

❖ Pray for Israel and the Muslims using the prayers for Israel/Muslims as a guide. God prospers those who pray for Israel. (See "Prayer for Israel and Muslims") in Volume 1. It is not conclusive, add more prayer points as led by the Holy Spirit and receive your blessings for praying for Israel, and the descendants of Abraham.

❖ Read the message of the day carefully and claim the blessings. Declare them aloud upon you and upon the day.

❖ Pray the prayer points for the day and every other prayer as led, also with the understanding of your daily bread as explained in "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread" Volume 1.

❖ List your prayer requests. What do you need from God each day? Write them in your journal. What does the word of God say about that need? Present them before God and begin to decree them into existence. Pronounce the blessings of the Lord upon yourself, upon the circumstances concerning your life and upon your family based on what the word of God says. Quote the word, until you receive answers to your prayer petition. Memorize it as well.

❖ Believe God's word, Praise God in faith, thank Him for answering your prayers and act like you got your desired answers. Call the things that do not exist as though they did; God gives life to the dead. "It shall come to pass." Romans 4:17b

❖ All prayers should be prayed in the NAME of JESUS CHRIST YESHUA and ended with AMEN

❖ Take communion DAY and NIGHT (at least once a day) and activate the ordinances of the three that bear witness on the earth. 1 John 5:6-8

❖ Meditation time. Psalm 46:10 "Be still". Be intentional about your breathing. Pay attention and take a deep breath through your nose and release through your mouth at least for 5 minutes. Ask the Lord to speak to you. Be still, quiet and listen attentively. Write down whatever He says to you.

❖ Depending on what day of the week it is, see the morning meditations and prophetic declarations for each day of the 7 days of the week in Chapter One, A and B. "10 – 30 Minutes Morning and Night/Bed time Meditation Each Day Of The Week"

❖ Commit your day's agenda to God and receive all you need to excel each day.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Intimate communication with God comes only through prayer and meditation. When we work, we work but when we pray, God works. He gave the Israelites "daily bread" for 40 years in the wilderness. Jesus taught His disciples to pray and ask God for daily bread. In this second volume, you will gain insight into the hidden mysteries of what constitutes our daily bread. You will understand God's willingness and divine ability to bless us, and our total dependence on God to supply all our daily needs. God wants to bless us much more than we want to be blessed. This book contains strategic daily prayers and meditations for the 31days of the month. With this book, prayer is made simple and enjoyable, and there is a step by step guide on how and what to pray for and meditate upon daily.

Are you bored with prayers? Do you feel like you are not hitting the target when you pray? Are you a busy man/woman who loves to pray but has no time? This book "Give Us This Day our daily bread" will revolutionalize your prayer life, and you will fall in love with praying.
